

DR. JUST WINS SPINGARN MEDAL

Young Howard Professor Is Awarded First Prize.

FOR HIGHEST ACHIEVEMENT.

One Hundred Dollar Gold Medal, the Gift of Dr. Joel E. Spingarn, Presented to Successful Candidate by Governor Charles S. Whitman—Great Throng Witnesses Ceremony.

By N. BARNETT DODSON.

New York.—On Friday evening, Feb. 12, in the presence of an audience of upward of 2,000 people, at the annual meeting of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People in Ethical Culture Hall, Governor Whitman awarded to Dr. Ernest Everett Just the first Spingarn medal. This $100 gold medal is offered annually by Dr. J. E. Spingarn, chairman of the board of directors of the National association, to the man or woman of African descent and American citizenship who shall have made the highest achievement during the preceding year in any field of elevated or honorable human endeavor.

Dr. Just since 1912 has been professor and head of the department of physiology in Howard University Medical school. He was born in Charleston, S. C., thirty-one years ago. He was prepared for college at Kimball Union academy at Meriden, N. H., and was graduated from Dartmouth in 1907, magna cum laude, being the only one of his class to receive this special honor. He was also elected to the Phi Beta Kappa. From 1909 to 1914 he has devoted his summers to research work at the Marine Biological Laboratory, Woods Hole, Mass. He has been doing special research work in physiology and zoology since 1911.

In spite of his youth and the amount of time that his professional position requires him to devote to academic routine, he has been since 1912 a regular contributor to scientific periodicals. The Biological Bulletin, the official organ of the marine biological laboratory, has published a series of his scholarly accounts of his scientific investigations. He has now in press an

James H. Dillard, director of the Jeanes and Slater funds, and Oswald Garrison Villard, president of the New York Evening Post company.

The Spingarn medal is offered each year by Dr. Spingarn and is not restricted to any particular field of human endeavor. The next award will probably be made at the annual conference of the association during the first week in May.

After the speech by Governor Whitman Professor William Pickens of Wiley university made an eloquent appeal for his race. There were ten minute addresses by Mirza Ali Kuli Kahn, representative of Persia to the United States; Mrs. Charlotte Perkins Gilman.

Gold medal, costing $100, donated by Dr. Joel E. Spingarn of New York, chairman of the board of directors of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. The medal was awarded by Governor Charles S. Whitman of New York to Dr. Ernest Everett Just, head of the department of physiology, Howard university medical school, Washington, for having made the highest achievement in a special field of any person of the colored race during the year preceding the annual meeting of the association. The presentation was witnessed by thousands at Ethical Culture hall, 2 West Sixty-fourth Street, New York, Feb. 12, 1915. Dr. Just is a native of South Carolina, having been born in Charleston thirty-one years ago.

Moorfield Storey, president of the National association; Dr. W. E. B. Du Bois and Lindon Bates, Jr. Oswald Garrison Villard presided.

The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People seeks to uplift the colored men and women of this country by securing to them the full enjoyment of their rights as citizens, justice in all courts and equality of opportunity everywhere. It favors and aims to aid every kind of education among them save that which teaches special privilege or prerogative, class or caste. It recognizes the national character of the Negro problem and no sectionalism. It believes in the upholding of the constitution of the United States and its amendments in the spirit of Abraham Lincoln. It upholds the doctrine of "all men up and no man down." It abhors Negro crime, but, still more, the conditions which breed crime, and, most of all, the crimes committed by mobs in the mockery of the law or by individuals in the name of the law. It believes that the scientific truths of the Negro problem must be available before the country can see its way wholly clear to right existing wrongs. It has no other belief than that the best way to uplift the colored man is the best way to aid the white man to peace and social content. It has no other desire than exact justice and no other motive than humanity.

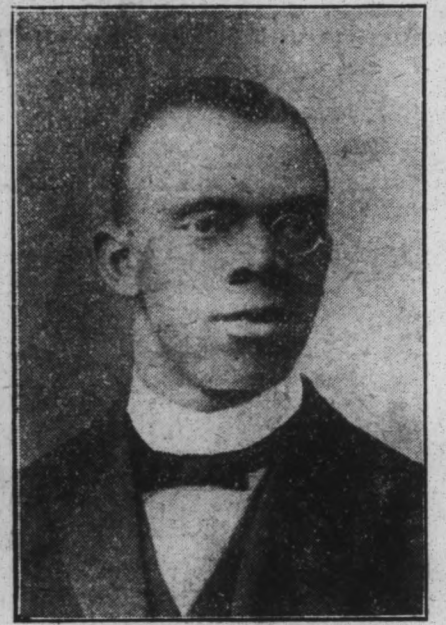

The committee on the Spingarn prize spent much time and thought before it finally decided that, taking all things into consideration, from the many names of candidates presented that the far-reaching results of the professional and scientific work of Dr. Just in its relation to human enlightenment as touching racial advancement during the fiscal year of the association merited the gold medal thus presented. The intellectual ability of Dr. Just shows that the colored man is capable of attaining to as high development in literature and science as men of other races are.

Mr. Hendricks is a graduate of the General Theological seminary, New York. For the past three years Rector Hendricks has been very successful in conducting missionary work in Porto Rico. Minnesota Odd Fellows Are Active.
The Odd Fellows' fraternity of Minnesota is showing timely interest in the erection of a new modern building for the order in St. Paul. The hall is being built at a cost of $75,000. The building when finished will become a center for the various secret, business and social organizations of St. Paul, Minneapolis and vicinity.

"DAVID, THE SHEPHERD BOY," WILL BE REPEATED FEBRUARY 24, 1915.

"David, the Shepherd Boy," the brilliant cantata witnessed by a large audience last week, will be repeated next Wednesday evening at Volante's Auditorium, corner New York and Senate avenue. The play portrays the life of David from boyhood to manhood and is abundant with many thrills. David's life as a shepherd boy, Samuel choosing David from Jesse's eight sons, as the Lord's anointed, Saul's despondency, the bridal march, the unbreakable friendship between David and Jonathan, the fierce quarrel between Jonathan and Saul, where Michael by her enormous strength prevents injury to Jonathan, Abigail's fainting scene, the crowning of David and Abigail are among the many notable incidents. The leading character is nobly portrayed by Mr. Harry Hall. Special mention is due Abigail and Michael, Mrs. S. A. Ratcliffe; Jesse, Robt. King; Samuel and Elder, J. D. Morris; Saul, Oliver

Burnett; Jonathan, Jerry Daniels; Abner and Messenger, Andrew McReynolds; Sentinels, Jas. N. Shelton and P. W. Corley. The attendants are: Mesdames Anna Hoss, Bertha Lindsey, Sallie Bottoms, Edmonia Temple, Misses Taylor, Cordia Jones, Eliza Chambers.

The costumes are among the finest ever worn by local talent. To Mrs. S. A. Ratcliffe, the dramatist, who studied in Chicago in 1900, is largely due the success of the wonderful play and every one should seize the opportunity to witness it. The Harmonie Orchestra, under the direction of Ralph Jones, is a revelation. They will render a thirty minute program prior to the opening scene. Popular prices will prevail. Adults, twenty-five cents; children, fifteen cents.

WOMAN'S COUNCIL.

After the regular business session on Tuesday night, the following program was given: Miss Nora Roberts, principal of School No. 23, read a paper on "Child Delinquency and Some Possible Remedies." Miss Roberts' address was unusually strong, bringing out some startling facts along this line.

A round table discussion of her paper by the large number of interested women present created a feeling in the hearts of each that we are indeed our brother's keeper. Other social organizations will do well to have Miss Roberts read her paper before them.

Miss Esther Bowman's paper on "What Youth May Contribute to the Community" contained an earnest appeal for greater sympathy and appreciation for the more mature workers for the value of youth that our young people might realize their opportunities.

A very pleasing feature of the program was an aesthetic interpretation of "Autumn" by Miss Ruth Guthrie in costume. Miss Guthrie is very poetic and graceful in her movements and bids fair to be an artist in this special way.

The Social Welfare Department of the Council, under the direction of its chairman, Mrs. Lillian Henderson, has had these various discussions preparatory to a full appreciation of the child welfare exhibition now being held in this city.

Next Tuesday, Feb. 30, Dr. H. G. Hill, who is an authority on these subjects, will be the speaker at the fifth in the series of educational meetings held at the Y. M. C. A. building. His subject, "A New Conscience," will deal with possible remedies for many of the social evils of the day. These meetings are open to all. Miss Cora Gannaway will talk on conditions among our people as seen in her work of nurse for the Metropolitan Insurance Co. Mrs. Lillian Jones Brown is president of the Council.

The next meeting of the Council will be held at the residence of the president, Monday evening, March 1, at which time Mrs. W. E. Miller, of South Bend, who has been appointed by the governor to look into the conditions affecting working women of this state, will give a resume of all legislation affecting women during the present session of the legislature. Mrs. Miller will be glad to answer questions bearing on this subject.

HEAD WAITERS' ASSOCIATION OF INDIANA, ILLINOIS, OHIO AND KENTUCKY.

The Head Waiters' Association of Indiana, Illinois, Ohio and Kentucky will meet in Indianapolis February 22 and 23, with headquarters at the Parker House in West Michigan street. This will be the first attempt to institute such an organization in these four states. The express purpose of the organization will be the maintaining or advancing the wages and for demanding more recognition among the better class of people with whom the waiters come in contact; to devise ways and means for advancing their general interests. Representative delegations from these states will be present, and the meeting promises to be a great success.

AN OPEN LETTER

In the interest of Truth and Clarification by First Free Baptist Church—W. S. Hodge, D.D., Pastor.

In view of the fact that there has been some shameful, disgraceful, malicious, unwarranted, devil bred and ignorantly formed and propagated rumors circulated, somewhat extensively, with regards to the actual status of our church under its present administration; growing out of iniquity, ignorance, prejudice; and in view of the fact that some of the members of this congregation are represented as having their names on the membership roll of our church, and some of them call themselves preachers. They may be preachers, but not gospel preachers; they may be preachers, but not preachers of righteousness; they may be preachers, but not God-called preachers—they are preachers of superstition, ignorance, self-defense, human hatred and falsehood.

We, the undersigned, wish to state to all concerned or affected, in all seriousness and truth:

1. That our church is not dead, not dying, nor waning from any point of view. The church has, in fact, been toned up considerably, socially, morally, intellectually and spiritually—lifted upon higher grounds. Our church is at present enjoying the respect, esteem and admiration of the more good-citizen-like and intelligent people of this Metropolis of the middle west as never before. We are not bragging nor boasting, but merely stating what has followed as a natural result, from the fact that we have one of the most learned, eloquent and powerful ministers and adequate pastors in the city and connection. He is respected and loved by all churches and ministers irrespective of denomination.

2. Our church is better organized than ever before. This applies to all of its parts and auxiliaries. It is being disciplined and there is much more unity and love in the church than has been for years.

3. We are well pleased with our able pastor, whom we would not exchange for any man living, and our only fear is that we might not be able to retain him, as he is much sought by other congregations and fields.

4. Our pastor has not preached a single defensive sermon (as was the custom before he came) since he has occupied our pulpit. That is, he has not used the pulpit as a means of either concealing or defending his ignorant or immoral actions, as in the practice of some. But he preaches the Gospel, exalting Christ and not himself.

5. That no girl nor woman, married or unmarried, has ever accused him of assuming or attempting to assume any attitude towards them or any one of their acquaintance which may be considered as indecently suggestive.

6. That we brand as unchristian the disposition on the part of any one, whether a layman, minister, expiator or whoever he may be, to coin, circulate, or encourage any one in the propagation of any gossip, suspicion, or rumor which is calculated to reflect discreditably upon either the reputation of our modest, refined and dignified pastor or our humble little but lovable church.

7. A timely reminder: "He that diggett a ditch for his brother shall fall in it himself."

An up-to-date line of gents' furnishings will be an attraction, both by way of quality and prices. Remember the place, 131 W. Washington street.

SOMETHING ENTIRELY NEW AND BEAUTIFUL.

Saturday afternoon, March 6, 1915, at K. of P. Hall, the Woman's Council will give a picnic. Music for the occasion will be furnished by the Hoosier Orchestra. Watch for the program next week's issue. Admission, twenty-five cents.

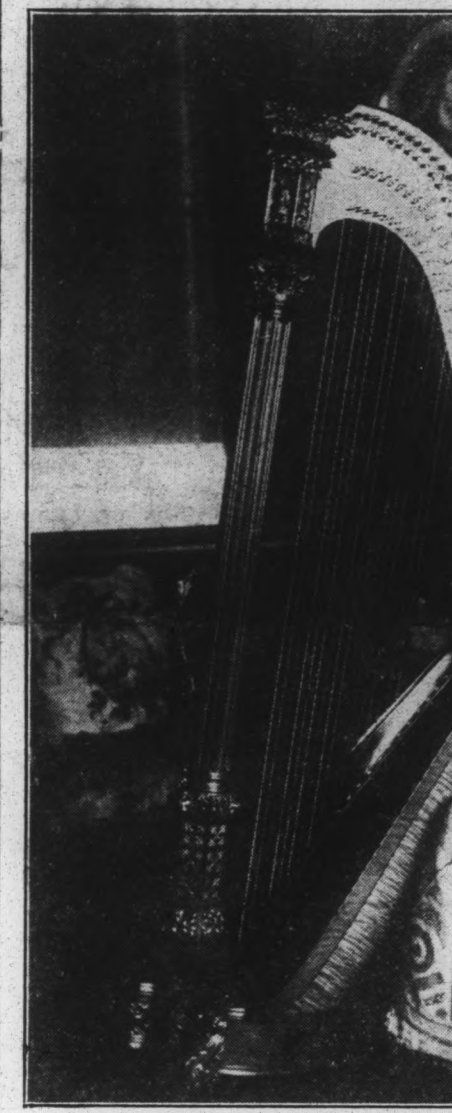

THE FRANCES SPENCER BENEFIT

The K. of P. Hall on last Monday night presented one of the most enthusiastic scenes ever witnessed, even standing room being at a premium. The occasion, a benefit musical to procure a harp for Miss Spencer.

cer, given by Mrs. M. C. J. Walker. The seemingly unlimited generosity of this woman was expressed by this great turnout. Many persons were unable to enter. The audience was a representative one. Promptly at 8:30 the program began with an overture by the Montani Orchestra, a solo by Noble Sissie, and two numbers by Miss Spencer, which showed promise and practice. Harpists are rare

among women and it is sincerely hoped that this desire of Miss Spencer to be an accomplished one will be realized when through the efforts of this entertainment she will have an instrument of her own. It was a trying ordeal, but undaunted by this first appearance the little lady proceeded to bring out all she could. The effort pleased her hearers for she was compelled to respond with an encore. Beautiful flowers were presented. The popularity of the orchestra is well known throughout this city. Their services free of charge on program, was highly appreciated. Coupled together with Mr. Montani as teacher to Miss Spencer, made coln, and the Rev. Father R. W. Bagnall, of Detroit, Mich., will be the speaker.

In presenting the famous Rev. Bagnall the local N. A. A. C. P. considers itself offering a very rare treat which the public will not permit any other attraction to cause it to miss. He is one of the most noted and accomplished advocates of justice for the American Negro, having preached this doctrine from the village meeting house to and before the great legislative assemblies in this country.

It was he who took the annual meeting of the N. A. A. C. P. by storm in 1914. It was he who put ginger in the N. A. A. C. P. movement at Washington, D. C., and caused that organization to be the foremost in the U. S. It was he who went to Detroit and aroused the sleeping conscience of its citizens to such a pitch that they were constrained to organize and fight for the cause of justice. It was he who prevented the passage of the race intermarriage law that was presented to the last Michigan legislature.

His subject Friday will be "One Way Out for the Negro."

Those who have not heard Father Bagnall will be assured of his ability by the following comments by the Metropolitan press: Dr. Bagnall speaks most eloquently—Baltimore American. His English is masterly and perfect—Detroit Leader. Dr. Bagnall is a polished orator of high order and handles his subject with great ability, exhausting the arguments—Washington, D. C. Sun.

It is impossible to give here an adequate idea of the beauty of Father Bagnall's oratory or the nobility of his thought. He held his audience spellbound—The Crisis, June, 1914. The Friday night meeting is open article which is to appear in the Journal of Morphology, which is the organ of the Wistar Institute of Medicine and Biology, Philadelphia. Dr. Just was chosen from a long list of candidates in many fields. He was recommended by men of the highest professional standing of both races.

Dr. Jacques Loeb of the Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research, in writing of Dr. Just, said: "His knowledge of biology and his critical ability are of an unusually high and lofty order. In the work he devotes to Howard university he is guided by very high motives, since the remuneration he receives is only a fraction of his nominal salary. He could easily increase his income by giving up his position. Dr. Just has sacrificed a good deal for the advancement of medical schools for colored people, and he will do a good deal more if he is given a chance, as I hope he may be."

Professor Little of Chicago university, who has collaborated with Dr. Just in some of his research work, in recommending him wrote: "Dr. Just is a relatively young man of high scientific attainments and has great enthusiasm and ability in research. In the last two and a half years he has published or has in press six articles. His most recent work is of the greatest significance and would insure him a wide reputation if he were a white man. No doubt you know of his position in Howard university, in Washington, and the good work he is doing there in bringing up the standards of medical education in his own race. The conditions under which he is obliged to carry it on are in some respects highly discouraging."

The committee who decided the award were: Bishop John Hurst, chairman; Ex-President Taft, John Hope, president of Morehouse college; Dr.

The papers, music and discussion were above par. But the best thing about the meeting was the spirit which characterized it, the spirit of love and christianity. All of which was largely due to the fact that the president, Rev. B. H. Corley, of Irington, Ind., is a minister, very affable, refined and of exceptional executive ability. And he simply transmitted to the convention his spirit of altruism, toning it up and making it easily one of the finest sessions possible.

May God bless the whole work to his glory and honor.
